

Feeding the Hungry

November 8—November 22

During November, parishioners are invited to help feed our hungry brothers and sisters in the Spokane Community. Possible ways:

Food Drive:

A partnership with Gonzaga Prep

Option 1. For those who feel comfortable:

You can bring food items to church,
Daily Mass or Sunday Mass times only.

Please place food on the steps in front of the communion rail, on the Marian or St. Joseph sides.

Option 2: For those who wish to donate money to Prep's Food Drive:

Please write checks to Gonzaga Prep.

Memo line: Prep Food Drive.

Mail to: Gonzaga Prep, 1224 E. Euclid Ave., Spokane, WA 99207

Non-perishable food items requested:

peanut butter	canned meat/tuna
dried fruit	hearty soups and chili canned fruits and vegetables
pasta/rice	healthy cereals
flour/baking mixes	oatmeal
baby food	mac and cheese

WA State Hunger Facts

** 1 in 6 children in WA State live in a household that struggles to put enough food on the table.

** WA State ranks 10th in the U.S. in overall wealth, but ranks 34th in food security.

Thanksgiving Dinner for House of Charity and Rising Strong*

November Collection for the Poor donations will be given to Sodexo Food Services to defray food expenses for Thanksgiving Dinner provided for participants at these two Catholic Charities Programs.

Please write checks to:

St. Aloysius Church.

Memo line: Thanksgiving Dinner
Checks can be mailed to:
St. Aloysius Church,
330 E. Boone Ave., Spokane, WA
99202

OR

Placed in a "Collection for the Poor" basket at Sunday Masses.

* Rising Strong is a holistic family-centered drug treatment and housing program supporting families as they rebuild their lives.

For more information: Rita Amberg Waldref 509-313-7003 or rwaldref@dioceseofspokane.org

If there is hunger anywhere in the world, then our celebration of the Eucharist is somehow incomplete everywhere in the world." Pedro Arrupe, SJ