On May 20, 1521, a cannonball shattered the legs of St. Ignatius of Loyola during the Battle of Pamplona. During his lengthy recovery at his family castle, God began to stir his heart and begin his conversion. To commemorate this “cannonball moment,” Fr. General Arturo Sosa, S.J. has declared an Ignatian Year from May 20, 2021 to July 31, 2022, his Feast Day.

Who is Ignatius of Loyola? St. Ignatius of Loyola was a Basque Spaniard who lived from 1491-1556. He grew up desiring to be a man of prestige and honor. During a battle in Pamplona, his leg was severely injured by a cannonball. During his recovery at his family castle, God began to stir his heart and begin his conversion. Over the following years, Ignatius went through a spiritual recovery, the course of which led to his discovery of how the “good spirit” and “enemy of our human nature” worked in his and other people’s lives. This led to his writing of his now-famous “Spiritual Exercises.”

He would eventually find himself studying for the priesthood at the University of Paris, where he shared lodging with Francis Xavier and Peter Favre. He shared his Spiritual Exercises with his new roommates and other classmates, who eventually formed together into the Society of Jesus. Ignatius was elected as their first “Superior General.”

As the superior of the worldwide Society of Jesus, also known as Jesuits, Ignatius found himself writing thousands of letters around the world to members of a quickly-growing religious order. His lasting monument of work from this time includes the Constitutions of the Society of Jesus.

All young adults are invited to join us on Sundays July 11 and July 25 for a social, starting at 6:00 pm, followed by communal Ignatian-inspired centering prayer at 6:30 pm. To get access to our list-serv and facebook page, contact Mike Tedone, SJ, at mtedonesj@gmail.com
